Faith After Doubt Led by Pastor Mueller

In times of accelerated and unprecedented change as well as challenges to political norms, science, and history, greater doubt is present in the lives of individuals and faith communities. How can we see doubt not as an enemy of faith but rather a means to a more mature and fruitful faith?

The Bible With and Without Jesus Led by Michael Duris

A guided tour of the most popular Hebrew Bible texts quoted in the New Testament, what they meant in their original contexts, how and why Jews and Christians read them differently, and what we can learn from each other.

Goal Setting in the Second Half of Life Led by David Willauer

We all have goals. Goals can help us plan and solve problems. Using Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, we'll explore goals and how goals set during the second half of our life differ from those we set when we were younger and less-experienced.

Revelation: Breaking the Code Led by Andy and Francis Smith

A guide to this bizarre, bewildering, frightening, beautiful, and comforting book of faith.

Light of the World Led by Wendy Leinhauser

A look at the Christmas story through the perspectives of Zechariah and Elizabeth, Mary, the journey to Bethlehem, and the visit of the Magi.

Lutherans and the Liturgy Led by Pastor Mueller

A walk through history to understand what we say and do in worship together, where it came from, and how it has evolved through the centuries.

Christianity's Family Tree Led by David Enlow

Like our own extended families, each Christian denomination has its own valued perspective to the Christian faith. We look at the histories and perspectives of these groups as well as some of the similarities and differences.

How Does the Story of Jonah Apply To Us Today?

Led by David Willauer

Is the book of Jonah just a Bible story for children...just another of the Minor Prophets...or are there lessons and meaning that can inform daily living in our 21st century culture?

The Beauty of What Remains Led by Pastor Mueller

Through his personal story, Rabbi Steve Leder teaches how to live and love more deeply through the experience of grief and loss as well as celebration and growth.

Why Easter Matters Led by Michael Duris

This video/discussion series centers around people and events of the Holy Week and Easter story, the struggle to trust, and the promise of Easter. What is it like to have our whole world turned upside down and then find hop again?

Acts: Catching Up With the Spirit Led by David Enlow

Join us for an overview of the book The Acts of the Apostles, including the lives and struggles of the early church. Learn about the experiences that strengthened their witness as well as ours today.

Women of the Bible Led by Wendy Leinhauser and Pattee Kissinger

Accounts of women in the Bible and the remarkable way that God broke down cultural barriers to use them for his loving and empowering purposes.
