How Does the Story of Jonah Apply to Us Today?

Led by David Willauer

Is the book of Jonah just a Bible story for children...just another of the Minor Prophets...or are there lessons and meaning that can inform daily living in our 21st century culture?

Jesus and the Marginalized: Then and Now

Led by Mike Burke Ph.D. and Russ Mueller, DMin

In Jesus’ day the marginalized included lepers, widows, Samaritans. Today they might include those who lack basic needs, victims of discrimination, or who lack dignity. What might our attitudes and actions be toward the marginalized? We will explore the implications of what the Bible says as well as what previous and current Christian leaders have said.

Context: Putting Scripture in Its Place Led by Wendy Leinhauser

“Context” examines Scripture verses that are widely recognized but often misunderstood when taken out of their original context. This series delves into the people, places, and times behind these verses, revealing deeper meanings and insights that are frequently overlooked.

Christian Beliefs Led by David Willauer

Christian Beliefs explores the basic biblical building blocks of our faith with a focus on clarity and application to life. This study is based on Wayne Grudem’s book of the same name.

Who Needs Christmas? Led by Mike Duris

In Who Needs Christmas, Andy Stanley explains how the remarkable details of the Christmas story are what make it so believable. And he tells us why, after so many years, it took something unexpected to get people’s attention.

Parables of Jesus Led by Pastor Mueller

Through study and discussion, questions and wonder, laughter and love, we will more deeply examine the way that Jesus used this form of ancient Middle Eastern teaching to reveal the kingdom of God in our midst.

Revelation: Breaking the Code (Part 2)

Led by Andy and Francis Smith

A guide to this bizarre, bewildering, frightening, beautiful, and comforting book of faith.

More Beautiful than Before Led by Pastor Mueller

Through this book by Rabbi Steve Leder (also author of “The Beauty of What Remains,”) we reflect on seasons of suffering in our lives as a source of transformation and a means of growth to be a blessing for others.

Christianity’s Family Tree (Part 2) Led by David Enlow

Like our own extended families, each Christian denomination has its own valued perspective to the Christian faith. We look at the histories and perspectives of these groups as well as some of the similarities and differences.

Acts: Catching Up with the Spirit Led by David Enlow

Join us for an overview of the book The Acts of the Apostles, including the lives and struggles of the early church. Learn about the experiences that strengthened their witness as well as ours today.

Chat Time With the Leaders

Time set aside for Pastor and/or council leaders to provide more detailed updates of matters going on in the life of our church, community, synod, or national church. Ample time will be provided for questions and discussion. Topics will be announced as we get closer to each of the dates.
